Tranquilly set behind an intimate period facade that opens to reveal an invitingly understated modern aesthetic, the cleverly crafted interiors are designed to maximise the interplay of light and space throughout. Flowing over two well thought out levels, this delightful terrace is privately positioned in a quiet cul de sac.

- Invitingly presented for low maintenance living
- Separate lounge/dining areas, internal atrium courtyard
- Large Gaggenau kitchen has solid timber benches
- Elevated entertaining terrace with city skyline views
- Double bedrooms, master with built-ins, balcony
- Polished timber floors and cleverly designed storage
- Bathroom with separate tub and shower + heated floors
- Superb garden, European laundry, halogen lighting
