Triumphant in its architectural design, this New York loft style apartment exudes all the historical charm and avant-garde modernism that the Portico residences are known for. This exquisite blend of old and new brings an unprecedented style of living to the heart of the CBD. With captivating views over Wynyard Park and the city skyline.

208sqm of stunning interior design is split over 2 levels, comfortably separating the living areas from the 2 upstairs bedrooms. Double-height ceilings and floor-to-ceiling glass windows and doors highlight the truly impressive sense of space. A wrap-around entertaining terrace serves as the grand backdrop, framed by historical church turrets, one of which houses a private retreat: perfect for guests, a home office or 3rd bedroom.

Perfectly positioned for soaking in all the diverse arts and culture of the city, the apartment is surrounded by acclaimed restaurants and bars and walking distance to anywhere within the CBD, Circular Quay and The Rocks.
