This over sized, charming three bedroom + study furnished apartment is a unique and unusual gem in the centre of Sydney's CBD. This bright and light apartment is larger than most city three bedroom apartments, and combines old character with modern finishing's. Situated in the historic 'Marble Arch' building, which was once an extension from when the QVB was originally used as a produce market - only becoming residential in the 70's two apartments were combined and the roof area transformed into a massive entertaining deck.

- Exposed timber and steel beams & large windows
- Open plan living/dining with very high ceilings
