This oversized two-bedroom apartment boasts one of the largest entertainment balconies in the historic Finger Wharf building.

East-facing floor-to-ceiling glass walls flood the apartment with light, while to the North three large heritage casement windows provide year-round radiance and delightful natural airflow.

Renovated in a New York loft style, Patricia Stewart's exquisite design maximises living space, cleverly integrates storage, and even includes a creative sleeping pod for extra overnight guests.

Set in the heritage-listed Wharf, this elegant and private apartment offers a luxurious harbourside sanctuary in an enviable location. No work to be done - move in and relax!
